

Going to Vietnam

Dr. William T. Berkeley, a plastic surgeon in Charlotte, N. C., will spend November doing volunteer work in hospitals in South Vietnam. He has two sons stationed in Vietnam.

**

Atlantan Heads Surgery Society

Dr. John R. Lewis, an Atlanta plastic surgeon, has been named president of the new Society of Aesthetic Surgeons.

The new society of cosmetic surgeons from all parts of the nation is dedicated to the study of specific problems in aesthetic (cosmetic) surgery.

Dr. Cox Named To SE Position

Dr. James B. Cox, Knoxville plastic surgeon, has been elected treasurer of the Southeastern Society of Plastic and Reconstructive Surgeons at its annual session last week in Biloxi, Miss. Dr. Cox resides at 570 Arrowhead Trail.

Dr. Cox

St. Petersburg Surgeon Gets Trustee Post

St. Petersburg surgeon, Dr. John M. Hamilton has been appointed a new trustee of the Southeastern Society of Plastic and Reconstructive Surgeons.

Hamilton, with Dr. Andrew M. Moore of Lexington, Ky., the society's outgoing president, was appointed to the trustee's post at the group's annual meeting at Biloxi, Miss.

Nine members were voted into active society membership during the meeting, including Dr. Ben T. Gregory, Pensacola; and Dr. Gilbert B. Snyder, Miami.

Five Floridians were voted into candidate membership: Dr. E. S. Truppman, North Miami; Dr. Robert Freeman Miller, Coral Gables; Dr. William F. Hogan, Fort Lauderdale; Dr. Leonard T. Furlow Jr., Gainesville; and Dr. Ira M. Dushoff, Jacksonville.

Dr. Carter P. Maguire of Charleston, S.C., was named the new president of the society, which is the second largest group of plastic surgeons in the country.